

EVENTS of Horse & Buggy Days Down to the Fifties

News From the Past - Taken
From the Nunda News Files

125 Years Ago - 1862—The first draft for the Union Army was expected to be held Oct. 1.—Sgt. E.A. Tuthill of Nunda's company in the 104th, who had been taken prisoner, was at Annapolis awaiting exchange.—The 130th Regiment, which trained at Portage, arrived at Fortress Monroe.—The ladies' organization was busy preparing lint and making jelly and other delicacies for sick and wounded soldiers.—Godey's magazine for October was a "rare and rich number" with 74 engravings.

100 Years Ago - 1887—Justus Derx put a new iron roof on his business block.—The Woodworth Knife Works was making 35,000 to 40,000 knives a year.—Mary Willis was engaged to teach the Dalton school.—A phaeton offered for sale was equipped with springs, lamps and guard rail.—Died: John Cooper; William Dodge; Mrs. Charles Hoagland; Mrs. Polly White, White Settlement.—Methodist ladies are giving an oyster supper.—Married: Mabel L. Wales and Herbert L. Satterlee; Myrtle Fay and Richmond Havens.

75 Years Ago - 1912—97 votes were cast in Nunda's three districts at the first direct primary held here.—S.B. Ryll purchased Mrs. John Griffith's house in Church street; N.S. Barker, the Monroe Myers shop.—The new macadam road to Oakland was open.—The annual picnic of the Political Equality club was held at "Chestnut Place." Mrs. Medcalfe's home.—Married: Minnie Kirk and A.R. Rathbun.—Died: Eli S. Barnes, 57, Oakland.—A new garment for ladies was a combination dress and apron.

50 Years Ago - 1937—Jason Hewitt, John D. Grimes and George Jackson were winners in a contest to name the most watering troughs of other days.—More than 800 persons attended Old Home day at the West Sparta church.—The Foote Co. Inc., was host to members of the Mixer Manufacturers Assn. for a two-day session at Glen Iris.—CCC Camp 17 at Gibsonville awaited orders to close Oct. 1.—Fritz Wagon accepted a position with a construction company in Charlotte, N.C.—Ed. Note: The News tries to be accurate in anything it reports, "even to the spelling of the names of our citizens," as was stated in last week's anniversary issue. It is therefore regretted that Mrs. W.H. Thompson's name was wrongly spelled at the time she and Mr. Thompson were married 25 years ago. How this came about is no longer remembered, but we are glad to make the correction in any case. Mrs. Thompson's maiden name was Laura McCutchan, not McLacklin.

35 Years Ago - 1952—Uncle Sam's "post office on wheels" made its inaugural trip into town escorted by Sheriff McCall and two deputies. Ceremonies planned to welcome the HPO were somewhat curtailed by a downpour of rain.—Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Shute sold their ice cream parlor at Dalton to Mary Covert of Hornell.—Died: Glenn Timothy, 41—Married: Barbara Lewis and Robert H. Paine. Bernice Chidsey and Ray C. Sherwood; Belle Duryea and Ward Van Gilder.—Born: Daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore James.

25 Years Ago - 1962—Junior police consisted of boys. No girls allowed.—Ruth Coffin came back to Nunda after an African trip.—Dr. Underhill, of Nunda, attended the ministers' retreat all over the United States.—Puff tissues were 49 cents for two boxes.

Area Meat Animal Show Brings Success to 4-Hers

The move of the Western New York 4-H Meat Animal Show and Sale from Caledonia to Pavilion Empire Market did not hamper the success of this annual event in attracting exhibitors and buyers.

The exhibitors presented 111 animals for show and sale from the counties of Erie, Genesee, Livingston, Monroe, Niagara, Ontario, Orleans, Seneca, Steuben and Wayne. Harris Wilcox Inc. again donated the auctioneering service.

Hogs started the sale this year with Jeff Murphy of Springwater receiving $4.00 a pound for his 256-pound champion hog, purchased by O.K. Markets of Caledonia. Matt Olmstead of West Bloomfield, sold his reserve champion 222-pound hog to Norstar Bank of $2.50 a pound. The 49 hogs judged averaged 83.5 cents a pound. The showmanship award was won by Bruce Brown of Seneca County. The New York Pork Producers and Jack Moran provided the trophies.

The lambs came next with Lisa Tillotson of LeRoy exhibiting a 108-pound lamb champion which sold to Jones Chemical of Caledonia for $4.00 a pound. Todd Tillotson kept it in the family by exhibiting the reserve champion lamb weighing 124 pounds with sold to Harris Wilcox Inc. for $3.00 a pound. Mike Hargrave, the judge, selected Deanna Stumbo as the champion lamb showman. The 52 lambs grossed $5,790 and averaged 97.9 cents per pound. Lamb trophies were sponsored by Conti Packing Co., and George Millsbaugh family of Ovid.

The 10 steers weighed a total of 12,280 pounds and grossed $13,288 for an average of $1.08 per pound. Charles G. May Center FFA of Mt. Morris exhibited the champion 1,260-pound steer which sold for $3.00 a pound to Jones

Chemical Inc. Cindi Shelley of Spencerport, showed the reserve champion steer weighing 1,355 pounds and sold for $1.50 per pound to Erie Niagara Insurance of Williamsville. The champion beef showman selected by judge Carl McCulloch also was Cindi Shelley. The beef trophies were sponsored by the New York Beef Cattlemen Association and Empire Markets.

Other sponsors who help make the show a success are T.M. Skivington Agency Inc. and Van Zile Travel Agency Inc.; Farm Credit Service; Curtis Burns, Inc.; Finger Lakes Nutrition Service; Pavilion State Bank; Warsaw Packing Co., and Crop Production Services Inc.

Business Workshop Planned in County

A workshop on economic development has been scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 8, in the College Union at Genesee State University College. The program will open at 1:30 p.m.

The workshop is being sponsored by the Livingston County Economic Development Office in conjunction with the county Chamber of Commerce, the Industrial Development Agency and the John Wiley Jones School of Business at the college.

The program is designed to provide area business with information about the availability of financial assistance to support business expansion.

GLACIER

The Jacobshavn glacier on the west coast of Greenland is one of the largest in the Western Hemisphere. It is also the world's fastest. The glacier flows at a rate of more than 100 yards a day and "calves" giant icebergs as often as every five minutes.
